

LAURA PRESTON

LEGISLATIVE ADVOCATE

Laura Preston joined the Association of California School Administrators (ACSA) in 2000 after 9 1/2 years of public education lobbying for the California School Boards Association. Prior to lobbying, Laura spent 11 years of legislative and policy work inside the State Capitol. She served as Principal Consultant for the Joint Committee on School Facilities chaired by then Senator Leroy Green. She also worked for three former Assembly Members.

Laura is highly regarded for her expertise on school facilities and school governance. Among the issues Laura works on for ACSA include collective bargaining and employee-employer relations, privacy, school facilities, Title IX and governance. She also serves as ACSA's liaison to the Legislative Women's Caucus. She served as ACSA's federal advocate for the past three years.

Laura is a graduate of Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo. She lives in Sacramento and has one college-aged daughter.
